

THE GREATEST GOOD NEWS

Isaiah 7:14

---

PASTOR ZAC NAZARIAN | Dec 24, 2019

How might the Christmas movie Home Alone remind you of your relationship with God?

When have you ever thought you could be happy doing whatever you wanted to do? How did that turn out for you?

Read Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 1:22-23. What encouragement do you find?

Have you ever thought of leaving your “comfort zone” and becoming a “missionary”?

What would life be like if Jesus hadn't come?

What is the true "glory of Christmas"? What does this mean for us?

What concerns in your life drown out the truth that you are of infinite value to God?

What does it mean for you that God wants to be with you?

What does it mean for you that Immanuel is committed to you for eternity?

How is Jesus (Immanuel) the answer to our deepest loneliness?

Someone once said, "Love is a contact sport." How did God "make contact"?

What is your appropriate response to the message "Immanuel – God with us"?

Who is the one "friend" who is always with you?

What truth should fill our hearts with a real and lasting joy?
It is the "good news" that makes a Christmas truly "merry".

Rejoice! We are no longer home alone!
