We call it _____ - the _____,
the day God became a _____.

Have you ever wondered about the moment when the 2nd person of the Trinity left His proper place in heaven?

In what ways has God previously revealed Himself in time, space and history?

Referring to Philippians 2:7a – How could God make Himself “nothing”?

Our Lord left His _____, and the company of His _____, and the _____.

When the Son left the side of the Father – we know what happened on earth after that - but what happened in heaven?

He did this to show us what could not be shown from heaven – the great extent of His _____.

In what way (at least) would the Son never be the same?

Today, we will call it _____ – only eternity knows what we shall call it forever.

What did Paul mean by the words “He humbled Himself”?
