

Can you think of just one instance where you were miraculously delivered or protected?

Angels guard us in _____ of our ways.

¹²they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.

What “pebble” in your path could cause you to stumble?

¹³You will tread upon the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

What have you ever set your heart on?

What is meant by “acknowledging/knowing” His name?

¹⁵He will call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him.

“I will answer”

“I will be with him in trouble”

¹⁶With long life will I satisfy him and show him my salvation.”

Who doesn’t want to live a long, satisfying life?

What is the last, greatest, climax of blessing?

Psalm 91

Pastor Zac Nazarian | Feb 6-7, 2021

What do you think is the greatest promise in the Bible?

Psalm 91 expresses the same truth regarding God’s protection and provision — but for who?

¹He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

My Christian life is characterized by:

- a) Close communion/fellowship with God.
- b) Occasional fellowship with God.

²I will say of the Lord, “He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

Now the Psalmist gets personal.

Have you ever thought to make v. 2 your life verse?

³Surely he will save you from the fowler’s snare and from the deadly pestilence.

From what kind of “snare” has God saved you?

⁷A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

What part of v. 7 helps you?

⁸You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

Do you “fret” over the wicked? (see Psalms 37)

⁹If you make the Most High your dwelling- even the Lord, who is my refuge ¹⁰then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.

What is the “if – then” of vv. 9-10?

How do you make “the Most High your dwelling”?

Can you count the ways God has rescued, preserved, protected, provided for you?

¹¹For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways;

Angels are commanded by God to do what for us?

From what kind of “pestilence” has God saved you?

What is the opposite of fear?

⁴He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.

What can we expect being “under His wings”?

God is faithful — even when we are not.

⁵You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,

Do you sleep well?

What are you anxious about? What do you worry about?

“arrows” will come but...

⁶nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.

What “pestilence” or “plague” threatens you?
